

The DVS Series directional valves, Hydrocontrol branded, from Walvoil are a new family of sectional valves specifically designed for several heavy-duty applications.

- Applications include forestry machines, skid steer loaders and mini dumpers, cranes, wheel loaders, and more
- Features very exact control features
- Smooth and precise in operation
- Compact, lightweight design
- Available in several configurations and custom solutions
- Working sections have auxiliary valves and wide range of interchangeable spools
- Can be fitted with integrated proportional electrohydraulic controls
- Special configuration for LS variable displacement pumps is available on request
- Offers flexibility and simplicity of assembly